OKTOBERFEST COMING OCTOBER 14th

Underline Saturday, October 14th, on your calendar. On that day, from 4 to 6 PM, the Foggy Bottom Association Oktoberfest will be held in the Saint Paul's Church parking lot (rear of 2430 K Street). Our previous Oktoberfests have always been a success. A live German band will be featured, along with the appropriate refreshments — hot dogs and beer. Hopefully the double-decker bus will be back. The guests of honor will be Charles and Dorothy Schoeneman. Be sure to come and see Charlie receive his Mystery Gift and drink his usual 18 bottles of beer. Admission and beer are free. This is your party, so plan to attend, and bring a friend!

IN-TOWN PLAYSCHOOL SET TO OPEN

Monday, October 2nd, will be the opening day of playschool for the tots and toddlers of Foggy Bottom.

The newly renamed In-Town Playschool, operated as a cooperative venture by neighborhood mothers, was started three years ago with fewer than half a dozen children attending. By last year, the surroundings had been livened up with the bright colors of a hand-painted mural on the walls, and a new assortment of exercise and play equipment. Enrollment had greatly expanded—so much that three teachers were hired to help the older children begin the experience of learning-away-from-mother.

Although primarily intended for mothers and children of the Foggy Bottom area, the unique, unpressured atmosphere of the school has attracted enrollments from Georgetown and other parts of the city.

Because some children have "graduated," there are a few openings available in both lower and upper schools. The lower school, for children from 6 months to about 2 years, provides an excellent opportunity for mothers to relax and socialize over a cup of coffee while their toddlers learn through play by sharing the large variety of toys and exercise equipment available. The hours are from 10 to 12 each weekday.

Foggy Bottom photographer Richard Tabor caught this view of two In-Town Playschool children, who paused in a discussion of "my turn on the swing" long enough to examine the camera.

The upper school, for children old enough to be left in a teacher's care, will open an hour earlier, at 9 o'clock. And, new this year, plans are set for a small, supervised afternoon group, from 1 to 3 pm, for children who no longer require naps and can benefit from a constructive environment for a period each afternoon.

More information about any of the playschool sessions can be obtained by calling Mrs. Richard Kraut (244-2489) or Mrs. Robert Greenfield (338-8455).

LAST MONDAY

The monthly Foggy Bottom Association meeting is NOT held on the fourth Monday of the month — it is held on the LAST Monday of the month.

VOLLEYBALL A SUCCESS

It may not be the Olympics, but the Tuesday night volleyball games have been an unqualified success, as have the post-game get-togethers in Bill and Arynne Simon's garden. The games are held in the vacant lot at New Hampshire and I Streets (site of the Spring Art Show). Since Winter cold and early darkness are approaching, it has been proposed that the volleyball sessions be replaced in mid-October by an appropriate winter sport. Bowling at one of the nearby alleys is one good possibility. Anyone interested please call Dennis Williams at 735-1551.

MIDWINTER FROLIC, ANYONE?

As a result of past successes, like the Oktoberfests and the Spring Art Show, it has been suggested that the Foggy Bottom Association sponsor some sort of festivity this winter to ease the midwinter doldrums. Anyone with some bright ideas about what, where, and when—and this includes you "singles"—call Anne Lomas at 965-2905.

Soupc'on *

by Dorth Arnold

Washington's climate in September often resembles the torrid Caribbean weather. So, before the cool weather begins here I offer you a menu from Jamaica and Martinique.

Daiquiris
Macadamia nuts

- * Escovitch (Jamaica)
- * Christophene au Gratin (Martinique)
- * Roast Pork Calypso (Jamaica)
- Baked Bananas

Lime Pie
Coffee

* Escovitch (for eight people)

Slice 4 onions, 2 large carrots and 2 green peppers into thin rings. Place them in a 3-quart steel or enamel sauce pan. Pour over them 2 cups of cold water, 1/2 cup white wine vinegar, 2 T. of olive oil, 1/2 t. crushed red hot peppers, 1 T. salt, 2 crushed bay leaves and 1/4 t. ground black pepper. Bring this to a boil and then cover and simmer until the vegetables are just tender.

Meanwhile fry 2 pounds of skinned, boned and filleted red snapper in 4 T. of vegetable oil until they are lightly browned. Transfer them to a large shallow heat-proof serving dish as they brown.

When the hot vinegar mixture is ready pour it over the fish and arrange the vegetables on the top. Cool and refrigerate the Escovitch until it is chilled.

* Christophene au Gratin

You may buy Christophene at Pena's Spanish Store at 1636 17th St., N.W. or use three-quarters of a pound of zucchini. Cut the Christophene or zucchini into lengthwise halves. Boil them in salted water until they are just tender when pierced with a knife. Drain them well. If you are using Christophene remove the large seeds. Then scoop out the pulp of the squash or the zucchini and chop it coarsely.

In the meantime fry until limp 1-1/2 cups finely chopped onion in 4 T. butter. Then add the chopped pulp and one-third cup of freshly grated Parmesan cheese and 1 t. salt.

Now fill the squash boats with the onion mixture and place the boats in a shallow baking dish. Dot the tops with bits of butter and sprinkle 2 T. of cheese over all. Bake in a 350 degree oven for about 20 min. until they are golden brown. Serve from the baking dish.

* Roast Pork Calypso

Place a loin of pork in a shallow roasting pan, score the top, on the fat side, with 1/4 inch cuts about 1 inch intervals and roast the pork in a 350 degree oven for an hour. After one hour remove the fat from the pan. Add 2 c. chicken broth.

In the meantime you will make a paste of the following: 1 cup of light brown sugar, 2 T. dark rum, 2 t. minced garlic, 2 t. ground ginger, 1/2 t. ground cloves, 1 t. salt, 1/4 t. black pepper. Spread this all over the top of the roast. Bake for another 30 min. Remove the meat from the pan to a warm platter. Let it rest for a few minutes while you mix 2 t. arrowroot and 1 T. cold water. Bring the broth and juices in the roasting pan to a high boil. Stir in the arrowroot mixture and boil stirring constantly until it is thickened. Then heat and ignite 1/4 cup rum, add to the sauce along with 3 T. fresh lime juice. Pour this sauce into a bowl and pass along with the meat.

Luscious red tomatoes are abundant at this time of summer and perfect just sliced thinly when cold and served at room temperature. Small cherry tomatoes make easy hors d'oeuvres. Serve them along with three small dipping bowls; the first of Vodka, the second of coarse salt and the third of curry powder. Fried green tomatoes have a slight taste of oysters when they are sliced, dipped in salted flour, fried in bacon grease and served with lemon wedges.

Here is a light summer luncheon menu.

Cherry Tomatoes with Vodka

- * Smoked Oyster ball
- Cocktails

Chicken salad with green grapes and toasted almonds
Hot Biscuits

- * Frosty Lemon Squares
- Iced Coffee

* Smoked Oyster Ball

One 8 ounce package of cream cheese
One three ounce jar of smoked oysters
One t. curry powder
One-half cup finely chopped pecans

Mix cream cheese with a little milk until it is slightly soft. Add the finely chopped smoked oysters, curry powder and salt to taste. Roll into a ball and then roll in the finely chopped pecans. Chill until you are ready to serve the ball with melba toast or crackers.

* Frosty Lemon Squares

3/4 cup of butter or margarine
1/2 cup of confectioners sugar
1 1/2 cups of flour.

Mix the above well with your fingers and press into an oblong baking pan 8 x 12 inches. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes.

While the above is baking beat 3 eggs slightly. Add 1 1/2 cups of sugar, 3 T. of flour, 1 t. grated lemon peel and the juice of one lemon—about one-third cup.

Remove the pastry after 20 minutes and pour the lemon mixture over it and bake for 20 minutes longer. When it is cool, sift confectioners sugar over it. Cut into serving squares.

FOGGY DOINGS

A belated but sincere welcome to REV. MICHAEL J. FARRELL, who became Pastor of St. Stephen Martyr Church on June 1. Father Farrell is a native of the metropolitan area, and came to Foggy Bottom from Holy Redeemer Church, College Park. The soft-spoken pastor already has the reputation of a good listener and a hard worker. His walks with Helagh, his black and white pooch, have made him a member of FB's large dog-fancier population.

Father Farrell succeeded BISHOP JOHN SPENCE, who left St. Stephen's due to illness. He is now in residence at St. Andrew's Church in Silver Spring and has improved enough to take on some episcopal duties after a long recuperation.

A good citizen award should go to the plucky 24th St. lady whose quick action caused the capture of two men who had assaulted a male neighbor. Her call to the police and her follow-through enabled the promptly-appearing police to take them into custody within minutes, as well as providing her neighbor with immediate help.

The Traffic Division seems to be paying at least some attention to the parking situation in FB. A very unhappy lady, parked in the 2400 block of H Street, discovered the "boot" on her car one morning recently. Another "boot" was spotted on Eye Street on Labor Day.

KUDOS TO LESLIE

After several years of service to the Foggy Bottom Association and the Foggy Bottom News, Leslie Wilder is "retiring"—for a while, anyway. She has served as Secretary to the Association, member of the Executive Board, and, until this issue, as Managing Editor of the FBNews.

We'll miss you, Leslie, and we're very glad you are not leaving the "Bottom".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

July 20, 1972

Foggy Bottom News
West End Library
Washington, D.C. 20037

Sir:

A few months ago you published an article bringing to our attention the 25th Street side of the Channel House. A walk recently through the neighborhood revealed an improvement, though slight, to this area. However, has anyone taken notice of the horrible odor coming from the garage on New Hampshire Avenue?

The smell of garbage is so strong that it makes you feel ill as you pass by. I am sure the owner realizes that there is a strong odor but nothing has been done. I should hope the residents of Foggy Bottom will get together and investigate this matter. After all, must our children be brought up with this smell? This could also breed rats, which we do not need.

I hope something can be done soon. At least bring it to the attention of the people by publishing an article in your newspaper.

Gratefully,

A Concerned Citizen
and Parent

CASBAH ON THE POTOMAC

Les Champs at Watergate, a million dollar complex of 30 small specialty shops and fashion boutiques will open early in October on the street level of Watergate 600 just across from The Kennedy Center.

According to Henry Winston, Manager of the New Mall, some of the greatest names in the fashion world: Yves St. Laurent, Gucci, Piattelli, Pierre Cardin will each have boutiques patterned after their European shops.

The airport international bazaar flavor will continue with other shops: a Tunisian embroidery merchant, Batik Walla (Indian and Pakistani Women's clothes); Midnight Sun (Scandinavian glass, china and gifts); Uruguayan rugs, leather goods and woodworks; William Miller (English gifts) and an oriental gift shop.

Other boutiques will include Colette (California sportswear) Red Balloon (children's clothes and toys); Charles Schwartz (carrying primarily ceramic and china gifts and fine crystal); a bath and linen shop; a disc shop; a perfumerie; an optician dealing primarily in fanciful sun glasses, barometers and telescopes; wig shop; Louise's Gallery of oriental rugs and antique furniture and Baraka Art Gallery.

Not a part of Les Champs, but immediately adjacent will be a section of craftsmen's shops—silver, ceramics, leather and such—where people will be able to watch the artist at work as well as buy his wares. These workshops will be an extension of the Craftsmen of Chelsea Court of Georgetown program.

The new Mall is patterned after the one owned by the Company on Les Champs Elysees in Paris. In addition to the shops and boutiques the world famous Watergate Complex will also feature a restaurant, a coffee expresso shop and an intimate cocktail lounge.

The same architect, Carlo Natale who designed Les Champs in Paris is designing the new Mall which is intended to attract not only the 5,000 residents and workers in the fashionable Foggy Bottom Complex, but also the 12,000 to 15,000 tourists who visit The Kennedy Center daily, plus the thousands of government workers and private employees working nearby.

In addition, Guiseppe Cecchi, President of the Watergate Improvements Associates, said they hope to draw suburban shoppers to the new Mall to see and buy the boutique merchandise. Drive-in parking facilities will be available.

While the hours for Les Champs have not yet been definitely set, plans now call for most stores to be open from 11 a.m. until 11 p.m. The restaurant and cocktail bar are expected to remain open later.

VOTER REGISTRATION DRIVE IS LAUNCHED BY FOGGY BOTTOM PRECINCT COMMITTEE

NEW OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

A program to reach all unregistered voters and help them to get registered was adopted by members of the 3rd and 4th Precinct Democratic Committee at a business meeting August 28 at One Washington Circle.

The program is built around a "voter information bulletin" which sets out who can vote on election day Nov. 7 and which tells what steps voters who are not yet registered can take to get themselves on the rolls of those eligible to vote, before it is too late. Under D.C. Board of Election rules, anyone not registered by October 6 will not be able to vote in the November elections.

The voter registration program is needed, according to a Committee spokesman, because Ward II, in which the two Foggy Bottom precincts are located, has the lowest proportion of registered voters of any Ward in the city, only nine out of every 100. This compares unfavorably with Ward III, for example, which has more than 18 out of every 100 registered, the highest proportion in the city.

The Precinct Committee's effort to make voter registration information available to all residents of the 3rd and 4th voting precincts is being channeled through "building captains" to be named in each of the 35 high rise apartments in area as well as "block captains" on those blocks consisting mainly of individual houses.

The Committee is actively seeking volunteers to serve as building captains for several high rises which currently have no captain assigned and who will undertake to distribute the Committee's voter registration information bulletin.

Also at the August 28 meeting, the Democratic Precinct Committee members elected the following to serve as officers for 1972-73:

Olga Corey, Vice Chairperson for Organization and Acting Chairperson of the Precinct Committee

Barbara Martin, Vice Chairperson for Policy and Program

Ann Sartori, Treasurer

Marjorie Brooks, Secretary

All are residents of Precincts 3 or 4 and have been active in the Committee's work since it was formed prior to the last election.

Copies of the "Voter Registration Bulletin" and further information may be had by calling Olga Corey at 337-3196 or Margorie Brooks at 293-1649.

(The boundaries of precincts 3 and 4 run from the Watergate north on 23rd Street to Washington Circle, then east on K Street to 20th, north on 20th to N Street, west on N Street to Rock Creek, and south on Rock Creek to the Kennedy Center.)

IF YOU DON'T REGISTER, YOU CAN'T VOTE ON ELECTION DAY

GOOD CITIZENSHIP DRIVE FOR THE THIRD AND FOURTH VOTING PRECINCTS---A VOTER'S INFORMATION PROGRAM*

- You can vote on election day Nov. 7 for
- President and Vice President of the United States
- D.C. Delegate to the House of Representatives

IF....

- You are 18 or older on election day Nov. 7
- You are a citizen of the United States on or before Nov. 7
- You are a resident of or domiciled in the District of Columbia
- You do not claim voting residence in any state or territory
- And you have registered to vote

--So long as you register by Oct. 6, you are eligible to vote Nov. 7. If you are not registered as a voter by Oct. 6, you will NOT be able to vote Nov. 7. If you are a registered voter but have not voted in the last four years, you must register again to be able to vote.

Where and How You Can Register to Vote

1. Board of Elections
District Building, Room 4
14th & E Sts., N.W.
Mon-Fri, 8:30am to 5:00pm
2. Dept. of Motor Vehicles

Sat, to 5:30pm)
4. High Schools
Sept. 25 to Oct. 6, and at other voter registration Centers to be set up.

If you will be absent from D.C. on election day...

If you will not be able to vote in person on election day, write at once to the Board of Elections, District Building, Washington, D.C. 20004 for an absentee registration form.

The Board must receive your request not later than Sept. 19. Absentee registration and voting is available to all servicemen anywhere in the world.

If you are shut in...

If you are physically unable to appear to register, you may ask for registration by writing to the Board of Elections. They must receive your letter no later than Sept. 26.

With your letter you must send a written statement from your doctor or licensed nurse saying you cannot come to the registration place. Someone from the Board of Elections will come to register you.

If you change your address...

If your address has changed, notify the Board of Elections before Oct. 6. Use a Post Office change of address card. If you do not do this and have moved out of the voting precinct in which you registered, you will have to vote in the precinct in which you are registered.

"THE IN GROUP"

Help is urgently needed from residents of the community to work with staff and other volunteers of Saint Elizabeth's Hospital and Area A Community Mental Health Center to expand and develop "The In Group" — a Socialization Club providing a social outlet and recreational activities to members who have returned to living in the community following lengthy or frequent psychiatric hospital stays. We are most grateful to the congregation of Union Methodist Church for letting the Club meet in their Church and thereby enabling us to accommodate many more members. But now we desperately need more volunteers to help organize and participate in the program on Fridays from 10:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. If you are free and interested in helping us to provide services to your community please call:

"WASHINGTON THEN AND NOW" COURSE TO BE GIVEN

"Washington Then and Now" is the title of a course to be sponsored by the George Washington University's Continuing Education for Women program on 10 successive Thursdays beginning September 28.

Major aspects of the Washington scene will be examined in light of the city's history and of what the capital has become. Current concerns will be related to the city's origin and historical development. Topics will include the effects of population mixture, area economics, growth and development in the fields of architecture and the fine arts in general, urban planning, and local government. Maps, comparative pictures, and other visual materials will be used along with some unpublished research. Guest speakers will discuss aspects of current local concern.

Instructor for the course will be Barbara Hitchcock, instructor and history department chairman for many years at the Madiera School.

Further information on this non-credit course may be obtained by calling 676-7036.
